BENEFITS OF HIMALAYAN SALT LAMP

PURIFY AIR

Himalayan salt attracts water molecules, which are carriers of various contaminants such as bacteria, dust, and pollen grains, and it filters out the pollutants in the air, providing you with cleaner air to breathe.

IMPROVE YOUR BREATHING

Poor air quality affects your respiratory diseases. Negative ions released by the lamp increase the activity of cilia, improving the filtration of the air, hence the air that reaches your lungs is cleaner.

INCREASE YOUR ENERGY LEVELS

Installing the lamp in the room shows a significant change in the energy level. It makes you more active and fresh as the negative ions released by the lamp instantaneously boost your mood.

REDUCE YOUR STRESS AND ANXIETY

Place a Himalayan Salt Lamp beside your bed. It helps you to make a quick recovery from stress caused by using digital devices.

BOOST MOOD

Negative ions are a treasure that can help you overcome seasonal depression. The warm glow of the salt lamp improves the environment, creates cool effects, and improves your mood.

REDUCE RISK OF ALLERGY AND ASTHMA

Clean, fresh air is a blessing for well-being. The Salt Lamps are the best source of reducing allergy and asthma risk by improving air quality; removing pollens, germs and dust from the environment.

HELP IN SOUND SLEEP

Quality sleep is vital for your health. You can get it by installing the Salt Lamp near your bed. The negative ions propagated by the lamp will improve the supply of blood and oxygen to the brain, promoting good sleep.

DECREASE ELECTROMAGNETIC RADIATION

Electronic, digital devices and gadgets release radiation which leads to fatigue, stress, and a weak immune system and fatal diseases. The Himalayan Salt Lamp reduces the radiation by its negative ions and keeps you safe.

Inhaler

Modern salt inhalers combine the best of old-world and modern technology. The coarse Himalayan salt rests at the bottom of the inhaler. When you inhale, the natural moisture in the air absorbs the salt particles into the lungs. This will help to improve lung health and to reduce the risk of asthma, allergies, colds, congestion, hay fever and sinus congestion.

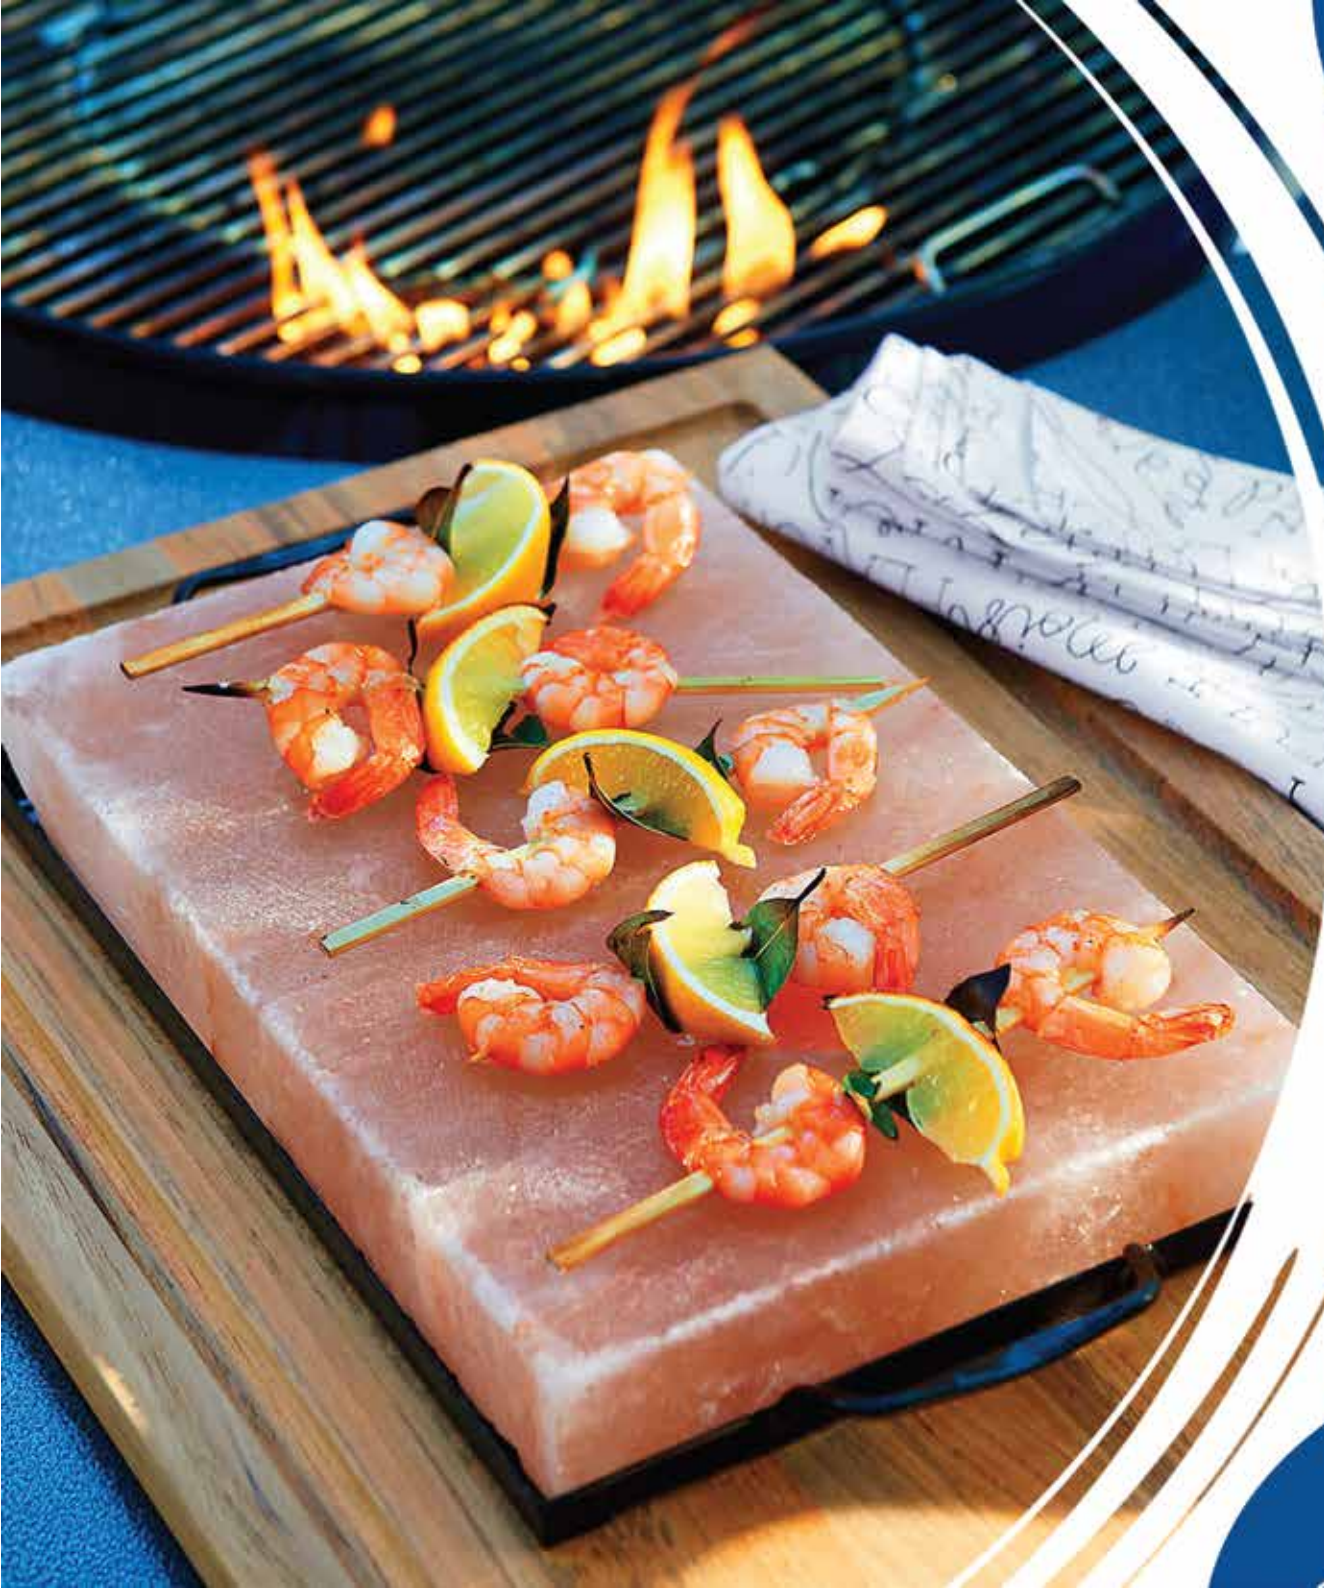

HOW TO USE A SALT INHALER

- *Place Himalayan rocks inside your ceramic inhaler, according to the package directions.
- *Place the inhaler mouthpiece in your mouth.
- *Breathe normally, through the mouth, and exhale through the nose.
- *Do not add water, the inhaler is for dry therapy only.

When you inhale with long, slow, deep breaths, this will bring the salt ions to the lungs. The lungs then absorb the ions and bring them into the bloodstream. This will help to reduce inflammation, reduce pain in the lungs from various conditions such as asthma, bronchitis or pneumonia.

Salt block cooking may be a new concept for some people, but it is definitely one to explore. Aside from them being very attractive—who isn't enamored by that beautiful blushed pink hue of salt that's been kissed by the Himalayan sun. Cooking on a salt block has a range of benefits over more traditional methods.

Cooking with Himalayan Salt kitchenware has a range of benefits. The salt block has excellent heat resistance, distributes heat more evenly, and infuses your food with 80+ minerals when cooked on a Himalayan salt block. It retains very little moisture and imparts a delicate salty flavor, and retains heat for longer—The crystalline structure of salt blocks ensures they retain heat for longer, which is excellent for roasting meats, or for serving food and keeping it warm. A natural anti-microbial surface—The low porosity and moisture retention of salt blocks mean they are a natural anti-microbial surface that discourages bacterial growth.
